14. PROJECT DESCRIPTION: (Provide a description of the project and all its components.)

The project aims to address gender inequities in eye health in Cambodia through partnerships between MoWA and the Ministry of Health (MoH), the National Program for Eye Health (NEPH) and FHF-Cambodia. This is an extension of the eye health advocacy activities that FHF currently undertakes in Cambodia, aiming to increase commitment to and awareness of eye health in policy debates and improve the accessibility and inclusivity of eye health services. Strengthening Gender Equality in Eye Health through PPEHS-II will seek to address gender disparity by:

- Encouraging active participation of women in the design and implementation of activities and inclusion of women in decision-making. The Department of Women and Health (DoWH) of the MoWA is leading in designing project and involving in all steps of project development cycle.
- Influencing policy-makers to draw attention on eye health as it is an important agenda by integrating it into strategies/policies and allocating resources for its investment.
- Providing training opportunities for local focal women in eye health at national and sub-national level.
- Supporting eye health awareness to ensure that its services are offered to women, men and children who are unreachable eye health information and unable to travel to receive eye health services for a variety of socio-economic reasons.
